

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

StampWants.com to Give Away a Genuine C3a Inverted Jenny Stamp (Catalog Value $275,000)

WILLIAMSTOWN, NEW JERSEY – December 20, 2006 – StampWants.com today announced an unprecedented promotion to give away a rare Scott # C3a Inverted Jenny stamp, which has a catalog value of $275,000. The promotion is running from December 20, 2006 to December 31, 2007.

The C3a Inverted Jenny is the most popular United States stamp and has recently gained worldwide notoriety when election workers in Broward County, Florida claimed to have found one affixed to an absentee ballot last month. While that C3a was determined to be a fake, it still helped to promote philately throughout the world and was featured in most newspapers, televised newscasts and other media outlets. StampWants.com wants to keep this newly sparked interest in philately alive, which is one of the key reasons behind this unrivaled promotion.

“This historic promotion to give away arguably the most popular stamp in the world, the rare C3a Inverted Jenny, will go down in history as revitalizing the world’s interest in philately,” said Mark Rosenberg, StampWants.com’s President and CEO. “It will catapult StampWants.com to the number one collectible stamp marketplace and community, and will be remembered in philatelic history.”

The C3a was printed in 1918, when the center image of the Curtis JN-4 (Jenny) airplane was accidentally printed upside down. Only 100 are known to exist, all of which came from one sheet of 100. For the last 88 years, collectors have sought after, admired and been fascinated with this striking stamp.

To participate in the giveaway, entrants simply need to enter online at www.StampWants.com and will have the opportunity to enter once every day until the promotion’s closing date. Official Rules are available on www.StampWants.com.

The C3a Inverted Jenny Giveaway coincides with another unprecedented promotion StampWants.com is currently running, where all seller listing and end of auction fees (except optional upgrades) are free until January 31, 2007.

ABOUT STAMPWANTS.COM

StampWants.com is an online marketplace and community connecting stamp dealers and collectors around the world; offering auction, fixed price, and store inventory listings as well as free tools and services. StampWants.com stands out in its industry with unrivaled customer service and low selling fees. Since September 2006, when StampWants.com began a strategic partnership with Gary Posner, Inc., active listings have increased by over 100,000.

Media Contact:

Elyse Rosenberg
(800) 692-8110
elyse@stampwants.com

###